The Wanamaker Store.

Reliability, Accessibility, Desirability

"WANAMAKER'S ;-good goods!" "Wanamaker's ;-fair treatment!" "Wanamaker's; -my money's worth, or more!" All over the country these thoughts are instantly associated with the name. Two and a half decades of store-keeping have won us this, if nothing more.

This New York store is gaining another proud association. "Wanamaker's; --- easy to reach!"

This store is central, easiest and quickest to nearly four million people. Many of them have learned this fact already. The rest are learning. We add to accessibility, desirability; to those, reliability; to all three, publicity. The sum is Success by every law of mercantile mathematics.

Crash Suiting at Half Price

This is a grade of crash suiting better known in the skirt than in the piece. We believe it has never before been sold at retail, as the manufacturer has heretofore had all he could do to fill his orders from skirt and

The price in quantities to skirt-makers has always been more than our selling price to-day. We offer this lot of

37,500 Yards at 5c. a Yard

It is a good fabric with firm, close, even weave, giving great strength for the knock-about service for which it was intended, together with a finish equal in appearance to that of many goods now selling popularly at 25c. and 35c. a yard.

Linen Suitings Again

A bit of history, and a new fact:—Last Monday we sold 12,550 yards of these goods at 6½c. a yard, between the hours of 8 A. M.

To-day we offer 10,800 yards of a slightly better grade

At Eight Cents a Yard Now judge by the past how quickly you must act in the instant present, even in the face of such a large quantity.

The goods are the sheer, substantial sort that makes up into the most sensible and serviceable Summer gown for hard use and travelling. Natural linen color. This quality is generally graded at 30c, a yard

85c. Japanese Silks for 65c.

Here's an evidence of the smallness of the world. A storm in mid-Pacific a few weeks ago results in an item of store news in New York, and some silk dresses for hundreds of people at less than they expected. These silks came from Japan in a sailing vessel. The vessel was damaged in a storm, and delayed. The silks are a little late for the best of the season.

Consequently, 65c., instead of 85c. a Yard All new, in summery patterns of white on grounds of black and

French Lingerie==Half Prices

This is a card from the Little French Store, that presents this morning some of its daintiest and best and asks but half for them. Almost everybody who reads this with interest knows the sort of goods that the Little French Store holds. We need try no descriptions of the wonderful needlework, the riotous profusion of lace and ribbon, the indescribable exquisiteness of these Paris-made garments. But, -they have been admired a little too much. They are all new, but they are no longer fresh. They are "mussed." We can't have them laundered, of course; you must do it, and we take half the price off for
